NEWS RELEASE

Holiday CD features

Community Music School students and teachers

BUFFALO, N.Y., November 14, 2013 –Community Music School is proud to presents its first-ever holiday recording, “Once Upon A December,” featuring CMS students and faculty. It is available for purchase in CD and digital form.

The recording is the first of its kind for Community Music School and includes 16 tracks ranging from classical to jazz to standards. It includes a rendition of “White Christmas” by Andy Anselmo, a CMS alumnus and trustee known for his work as New York City’s “Voice Coach to the Stars.” The recording also includes such holiday favorites as “Jingle Bell Rock,” “Winter Wonderland” and “Silver Bells.”

Produced at GCR Audio, the recording is sponsored by the M&T Charitable Foundation.

The CD is available for $10 at Community Music School, 415 Elmwood Ave. in Buffalo, or at www.communitymusicbuffalo.org or <http://communitymusicschool.bandcamp.com>. Details and song previews are available at both websites.

Community Music School is a nonprofit organization with locations in Buffalo, Amherst, Clarence Center, East Aurora, Lancaster and Lockport. The school offers individual lessons in piano, voice, strings, winds and brass, guitar and bass, percussion, theory and composition. Community Music School also offers various musical classes and ensembles for children and adults.
