NEWS RELEASE

Summer Music Adventure Gives Children a Cultural Experience

BUFFALO, N.Y., May 14, 2013 – Community Music School will kick off its summer season with a musical adventure called “Around the World in 10 Days” for children ages 5-12. This program will allow students to explore the musical instruments, traditions and songs of a different country each day while gaining hands-on experience with instruments. No musical background or training is necessary.

The program will be held on weekdays from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. from July 8 – 19, and will be repeated for another group of children from July 22 – Aug. 2. It will take place at Community Music School, 415 Elmwood Ave. in Buffalo’s Elmwood Village. For those who sign up by June 1, the two-week program costs $200. Sibling discounts are available. Registration is online at www.communitymusicbuffalo.org or by phone at 884-4887.

Community Music School teachers will direct the program, led by Christina Brown, an experienced music educator and chairperson of Community Music School’s childhood education department.

Community Music School is a nonprofit organization with locations in Buffalo, Amherst, Clarence Center, East Aurora, Lancaster and Lockport. The school offers individual lessons in piano, voice, strings, winds and brass, guitar and bass, percussion, theory and composition. Community Music School also offers various musical classes and ensembles for children and adults.
